

ST IVES & ELY

CAMBRIDGESHIRE

MONDAY 30TH MARCH

We will be visiting the scenic picturesque market town of St Ives, historic for both Oliver Cromwell and the Herbert Norris Museum. The attractive buildings of the Main Street and the Old Quay as well as the historic Market on a Monday make for a pleasant morning visit.

Around Lunchtime we will transfer to Ely the historic city which is dominated by its cathedral one of the largest in England, locally known as the Ship of the Fens, it also houses the only museum dedicated to stained glass. A visit to Ely would not be the same without visiting the cathedral, and then enjoy some relaxing time with a coffee or drink along the beautiful waterside.
